Jewel of Yorkshire

2 & 3 October 2010

Victoria Hall, Saltaire, BRADFORD BD18 3JS

Dance, party, shop, enJoY!

Workshops from 9:30 – 6:15 Saturday, 10:00 – 4:30 Sunday
Hafla 7:30 – 11:30 (Saturday)

- National and International star teachers - 48 workshops suitable for all levels of experience, with limited class sizes
- Saturday evening hafla (pre-booking essential) with performances by many of our teachers, a chance to bop in the disco room, or relax in 'chill out and chat' room.
- Relax and chat with friends at the Café (9:00 – 5:00 on Saturday and during the hafla, 9:30 – 5:00 on Sunday) serving hot and cold sandwiches, snacks and drinks.
- Shop at the souk, open 10:30ish – 5:15 on Saturday, during the hafla on Saturday evening, and 10:00 – 3:00 on Sunday.
- Dancers Tea (Saturday 5:30 – 6:30) a light meal before the hafla for busy dancers (pre-booking essential – note caterer's price increase – we take no profit from this facility)
- Easy access by public transport by bus and train. Saltaire station is just two minutes walk from the venue with connections to Leeds, Bradford and Carlisle. Directions, parking info and maps will be sent with bookings.
- Reasonably priced B&B and hotels available locally. Information on the area, accommodation and access can be obtained from Bradford Tourist Information Centre, City Hall, Bradford BD1 1HY - www.visitbradford.com
- Limited places available so early booking advised - places reserved on a first come first served basis, please send payment with booking. Last date for advance workshop bookings to reach us is 25 September 2010.

NOTE - We reserve the right to use a suitably qualified substitute teacher if, exceptionally, the named teacher is unable to attend. Full cancellation policy will be provided on request and is issued with confirmation letters.

Bookings for the halfa without workshops will only be taken if places remain available after 25 September, watch the website for an announcement
